Destruction of Files

Honorable Louis Stokes
Chairman, Select Committee on Assassinations
United States House of Representatives
Washington, D. C. 20515

Dear Mr. Chairman:

In a letter dated 9 December 1976 to a former Chairman of the Select Committee on Assassinations, the Honorable Thomas N. Downing, the former Director of Central Intelligence, Mr. George Bush, gave assurance that no records related to the Committee's investigations would be destroyed once the moratorium on the destruction of Agency records, invoked by the Church Committee, was lifted. Chairman Inouye of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, lifted the moratorium as of 21 December 1977.

In disposing of its records, CIA, like all Federal agencies, is subject to relevant provisions of Federal law. We have completed the records control schedules which are required by law and 21 of these 22 schedules have been approved by the Archivist of the United States. These schedules describe in some detail the Agency's files, govern the periods for which these files may properly be retained, and establish the timetable for their disposal. I should point out that once the Archivist approves these records schedules the disposition instructions and destruction schedules incorporated therein become obligatory upon the Agency under law.

We are most anxious to resume normal document destruction since the moratorium covered all Agency documents and this has created a tremendous administrative burden. My Legislative Counsel raised this subject with Mr. Blakey and he requested that a detailed discussion be deferred for another month when he contemplates that most of the review of CIA documents will be completed. Accordingly, at the end of March 1978, we will arrange for delivery of the schedules to you for Committee review and for a briefing of the Committee staff concerning the details contained in these records schedules. I am enclosing a copy of one of these schedules to illustrate that the records which are now being held are in the most part temporary in nature and are not in any way related to the matters your Committee is investigating.

I have also enclosed a copy of our recent Headquarters Notice, entitled CIA Records Destruction Policy. You will note that this destruction policy incorporates a number of safeguards against the destruction of records which may be pertinent to the needs of the Congress in general, and your Committee in particular.

We are planning to resume normal destruction on 1 May 1978 which should provide sufficient time for the Committee to complete its review of the schedules. It is my belief that this policy is fully responsive to the requirements of your investigation while enabling the Agency to comply fully with the requirements of the law.

Yours sincerely,

/s/ Stansfield Turner
